Our 2011 Quincy Lodge #230 T-Ball Team

From the East

Brethren,

Well, summer is here (finally). I've seen entirely too many storms this spring. I'm sure the farmers are tired of all the rain that kept them out of the fields for so long. Hopefully, everyone is getting caught up and starting to enjoy the warmer weather.

We have a few activities planned for this summer as well. It looks like we'll have at least 1 EA Degree, 1 FC Degree and probably 2 MM Degrees to try to fit in before mid-October (we'll be really hopping). We also have the Elwood Glass Festival in mid-August (be ready to volunteer to help when Kevin calls you to work the booth).

We're planning our Annual Picnic for Saturday, August 27th. We'll meet at Callaway Park at 5:00. We'll send out a flyer later with more information, but I've heard a rumor that the might be a dunk tank and that I could be sitting in that tank for a chance to dunk. We might even recruit the 2 Wardens to take a turn getting wet (assuming you all can throw a ball). We'll see.

Also don't forget the Masonic Home Festival in Franklin on September 11. It's always a great time to meet other Masons as well as members of several of the Appendant Bodies (Eastern Star, DeMolay, Jobs Daughters and Rainbow Girls).

As a last note, I want to say that we've had a number of folks renting the Lodge Fellowship Hall this year. It's great money for us, and hopefully word-of-mouth will spread to get us some extra income. Help us spread the word – if someone says they need to rent a room, mention us. They can call me directly to get it set up. And remember that Brothers of Quincy Lodge pay ½ the normal rental rate, so make use of it for family gatherings, etc.

I hope everyone has a safe and fun summer. I'll 'see' you again in the fall.

Sincerely,

Barry Clouser
